DO YOU KNOW HIM?

(By O. Jay.)

There was a man the other day who said he couldn't see ANY REASON why we should have got into this war. This same man has BURGLAR ALARMS on every window in his home, and he sleeps with a gun under his pillow. He has the phone numbers of the police and fire department in large numbers above his telephone and he keeps a big DOG in his kitchen nights, and he has his LIFE insured and always has one umbrella at home and one at his office and he tells his children to always look BOTH WAYS before crossing the street, and YET—this son of the kaiser doesn't know why we are at war.

"The Barracks Whore"

(By Private Chet Shafer, 310th Sanitary Train, Camp Center.)

Not so very long ago there was a sweet little flowerlet who breathed down just below his larynx and whose chin was little more than a gentle undulation. In his home hamlet he excited about as much admiration as a boll-weevil in a cotton-producing vicinity and he was just exactly as useful as a lace doily in an iron foundry. His biggest expenditure was for upkeep on his nails and he was perturbed only when the price of gasoline was raised. He spent most of his time hoping that father had a good day at the factory and wondering if Hildegarde threw a nifter foot on the pavilion floor than Emmeline.

Since that time things have changed. And you ought to see the cuckoo now. He's had a regulation military haircut and his chin sticks out in front like a guaranteed bumper on a new car. When he inhales he fills both lobes, and the lutes say they like him because he's got the get-up. He's getting along nicely on his $30 per. He's that vigilant that he even watches his step and so adroit that when he gets a Poland-China hunch on an extra tinned Willie sandwich he proves positive possession.

This bird is a National army soldier. And he's hardboiled. A 20-minute egg. And he, with his steel-riveted friends, will soon be listed with the Hun-hounds that will go over there to answer the inquiry in that popular ditty: "Liberty Bell! Why Don't You Ring Again?"

And when he returns he'll park out in front of Emmeline's and the neighbors will sit out on the front porch, nod their heads wisely and say, "All he needed was a little war."

And they'll be just as right as a $5 bill.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Luno went to Grant Rapids, Tuesday morning, to look over the situation there and for the purpose of his getting employment at his trade—that of printer.

Built With Your Vacation in Mind

1918 REDPATH CHAUTAUQUA PROGRAM 1918

Seven Cheer-Up Days

QUICK to sense the public needs in a year when so many people are planning to take their vacations at home, the Redpath has arranged Seven Cheer-Up Vacation Days for each city on its circuit this season, and offers this Seven Day program for the same price as heretofore, $2.50, except for 10% War Tax.

You thought when the war broke out that the time to be entertained and inspired had passed; that seriousness and anxious thought must inevitably hold sway.

Miles of Smiles

WHEN the boys began to go to the front this attitude changed. You did not want them to go away in gloom nor to remember your face as one of sadness. In fact, you sent them Smileage Books and invited them to enjoy "Miles of Smiles."

Then you discovered that you could not do your best work in an atmosphere of gloom and suspense and finally concluded that you too need relaxation, entertainment and inspiration if you are to perform your greatest patriotic duties and "Keep the Home Fires Burning."

Keep Up Home Morale

BECAUSE of this, more emphasis has been given to bright, cheery music, gorgeous costumes and scenery, fun and inspiration than ever before.

The Redpath Chautauqua offers you Seven Days of wholesome fun, genuine inspiration, courage, reassurance, just the thing to keep up the Home Morale.

A Patriotic Institution

NOT only this, but the Redpath Chautauqua comes to you as a highly patriotic institution which has helped raise the Liberty Loan, entertained the boys in the cantonments and educated the American people in the principles of Democracy in such a measure that President Wilson has declared the Chautauqua "An integral part of our National Defense."

A War-Time Economy

THE lectures this year will be greater, more timely, more enlightening than ever before, the kind that inspire men to heroism and great deeds.

Therefore, all in all, the Redpath Chautauqua comes to your city to help brighten your life, and serve your community and your country and as a real war-time economy. You cannot afford to miss these Seven Big Cheer-Up Days. Tickets now on sale.

See program for detailed list of vacation attractions.

BUSINESS AS USUAL?

(By O. Jay.)

Of course not. Nobody expects it. Not these days when we are bending every effort to crush the Hun. But there are certain things you must have and which your local dealer carries. Patronize him. He is having a harder time than you think, under prevailing market conditions. Many things he cannot get, but he is doing his patriotic duty in serving you with WHAT HE CAN GET. So next time you need something he has—don't send your money away for it, but buy from him, for he's helping to keep your town on the map.

And Mr. Merchant: You need advertising worse than ever. Even if you can't get EVERYTHING you'd like to carry, you can get SOMETHING, so let's keep the ball rolling, perhaps not as fast as usual, but moving, and by and by when the sun comes out again and we resume business "as usual" we will know that what we sacrificed meant VICTORY that much sooner, and that it wasn't made in Germany either.

Serve Your Country By Saving Money!

You've always been told you ought to save money; every day some savings bank advertisement tells you so. The chief reason given for saving money has been that you'd have the money with interest later on, as a step to financial independence and success.

That is an excellent reason, but there's a better reason than that. Save because we have pledged the honor of our country and our people to fight this war to our last dollar and to our last man if necessary. America does not break her word.

Money saved makes of you a better man or woman, boy or girl; makes you dependable, responsible; increases self-respect, which increases your value. Save money to help your country by buying War Savings Stamps and U. S. Thrift Stamps.

- 1—War Savings Stamps are a promise to pay you the amount you invest, at the end of 5 years, with 4 per cent interest compounded every three months.
- 2—You can turn them into cash any time without looking for a buyer; just go into any postoffice and get them cashed.
- 3—You can invest in U. S. Thrift Stamps as little as 25 cents at a time, and as much more as you please.
